

Improving Health Through Partnership

Oxford School of Public Health 7th Annual Symposium

The Richard Doll Building
Old Road Campus
Roosevelt Drive
Headington
Oxford
OX3 7LF

15th September 2017

- Please book via: <https://goo.gl/3kag2L>
- Free places for first 30 attendees from within the Thames Valley*
- Ticket price £15 for external attendees to cover refreshment costs
- Poster applications welcomed via email: admin@oxsph.org

A day of presentations and discussion

How collaboration can improve health and wellbeing
The successes and challenges of joint working in public health
Ideas for increasing impact and effectiveness in partnership work

Featuring talks by

Professor John Middleton

President of the Faculty of Public Health

Jackie Wilderspin

Public Health Specialist at Oxfordshire
County Council

Rachael Wardell

Acting Chair of the Berkshire Child Death
Overview Panel

Dan Northam Jones

Senior Strategy Advisor at NHS England

Dr Nigel Hewett OBE

Medical Director of Pathway

Dr Matt Kearney

National Clinical Director for CVD
Prevention at NHS England

Dr Rosie Rowe

Director of the Bicester Healthy New Town programme

* Please note that ticket funding only covers public health consultants, educators and registrars from the Thames Valley region